

GEORGE ADE

HAZELDEN FARM

BROOK, INDIANA

Aug. 13, 1925.

Hugh Fullerton,
Liberty Weekly,
New York City.

My dear Hugh:

To my notion Mary Roberts Rinehart is the most interesting woman who has made a definite impression upon the American public. She is not only a charming individual but she is a successful mother and a good traveler and a keen sportswoman, to say nothing of the first-class work she has done as a novelist, dramatist, and special writer on a great variety of topics. She has made her way in the world and mastered a variety of professions and acquired a fortune and she is still youthful and enthusiastic. I vote for Mary.

I trust you are well and happy, even if you do address me as Mr. Ade.

Sincerely,

George Ade

Apr. 18, 1936.

Hugh Livingston,
Liberty Weekly,
New York City.

My dear Hugh:

To my notion Mary Roberts Rinehart is the most interesting woman who has made a definite impression upon the American public. She is not only a charming individual but she is a successful mother and a good traveler and a keen sportswoman. To say nothing of the first-class work she has done as a novelist, dramatist, and special writer on a great variety of topics. She has made her way in the world and mastered a variety of professions and acquired a fortune and she is still youthful and enthusiastic. I vote for Mary.

I hope you are well and happy, even if you are not.
me as M. A.

Sincerely,

George Alde

HUGH FULLERTON

Liberty Weekly

247 Park Avenue

New York

N. Y.

